

The White Dolphin.

16 0 1

Chapter 1 by Lorraine

In all of the sea, all of the fish, this one was the most unique. It was a Dolphin. Free, smart, and happy. The only reason that he was different from all the others was because, he..was White. The brightest scale of white you can get. Blinding. So bright, that if you saw him, you might just think he was a piece of debris, floating away. See, that's what everybody thought. So he got the least amount of attention, but one, cold, windy day, this girl named Sasha, (Nicknamed Sausage) went down to a pier in the nearby town, she saw this beautiful creature. Swimming, diving, and she thought, oh what a weird thing. "Iv'e never seen a swimming cloud!" (She was only 5) So, when the dolphin came up for air, she screamed. "AHH! this cloud has a face!" The dolphin was confused, so he swam away, and a few minutes later, he came back, carrying a Golden watch. Sasha thought to herself, "nice fishy!" Sasha then reached down to take the watch, and the dolphin leaped up, and threw it on the pier, indicating that he wanted to play.
